

PONTIFICAL MISSIONARY COOPERATION AND INTER-ECCLESIAL SOLIDARITY

Presentation:

The year 2019 was special for the Pontifical Mission Societies (PMS), as they promoted and encouraged the celebration of the Extraordinary Mission Month in October, both in local Churches and on the universal level. In recounting the activities of the Pontifical Mission Society for the Propagation of the Faith (POPF), one must point out the great success of that celebration. Indeed, the missionary month of October had an extended echo among the faithful and allowed everyone to renew their personal missionary commitment, following the theme chosen by Pope Francis, "Baptised and Sent: the Church of Christ on mission in the world".

The great efforts of the POPF to support churches in mission territories would be unthinkable without the participation of the entire People of God.

The fruits of the October missionary month, however, are not fully visible, because in very many cases they are spiritual in nature: prayer, the offering of one's sufferings, the desire to communicate the Gospel. We present all of these treasures as an essential part of all that was achieved in 2019. To this, one must add the financial support offered to ecclesiastical circumscriptions under the jurisdiction of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples (CEP). It is well known that all of the local Churches in the whole world contribute to the support: "All the Churches for the whole world," as Blessed Father Manna, founder of the Pontifical Missionary Union (PUM) wrote.

The PMS are an expression of this universal involvement. As Pope Francis affirms in his message to the PMS on May 21, 2020:

"The Missionary Societies, which in time became a network spread throughout the world, mirror in their own configuration the variety of accents, situations, problems, and gifts that characterize the life of the Church in the various parts of the world. ... In this sense, the PMS reflect the mystery of the universality of the Church, in which the incessant work of the Holy Spirit creates harmony from different voices..."

Therefore, we can say that by their very nature, the PMS live by the universal embrace that does not want to exclude anyone from the salvation that God offers us in Christ. This is a call that cannot fail even in the difficult times we are living in.

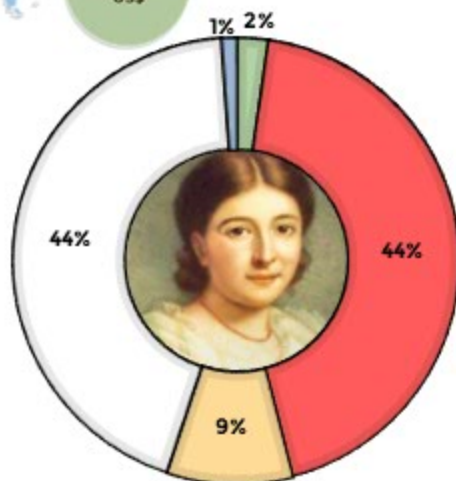

The Report we are presenting, therefore, is not a cold list of figures and projects. Rather, it is a clear demonstration that the participation of the whole People of God, through the Pontifical Mission Societies, guarantees that the universal openness in the Church is always alive and active, in order to respond to the hopes and desires of those communities that are still in need of help and support for their growth.
